ANNAPOLIS & DISTRICT NATAL DAYS

AUG 07, 2017

PARADE GUIDELINES

Natal Days is almost here, the theme for 2017 is “HAPPY BIRTHDAY”. There is so much you can do with this theme! Use your imagination to build a float or decorate a vehicle. Have fun, be creative and we’ll see you on parade day!

We look forward to participation by you, your family and staff along with neighbouring communities whose support adds great measures to the community spirit.

This year, the Parade will be held on Monday, August 7th. It will start at the corner of St. George and School Street, proceed north on St. George, east on St. Anthony, north on Drury Lane and east on to St. George to the first entrance to Fort Anne and into the Fort where final judging and awarding of prizes will take place. The parade will line up along Champlain Drive, School Street, and into the parking lot of the County Municipal Office Building.

All entries will be registered at the Parade Marshal’s desk in front of the Baptist Church at the corner of St. George St. and St. Patrick’s Lane. Assistant Marshal’s will direct entries to their place in the parade line-up.

Please register between 11:00 am and 12:00 pm. The parade will begin at 1:00pm sharp.

For reasons of safety, children under the age of ten years participating in the parade must be accompanied by an adult.

Please do not throw candy or other favours from floats or vehicles. If you wish to distribute favours, you can do so by having persons walk alongside your entry.

Keep approx 10 metres (30 feet) behind the entry in front of you.

Float dimensions should be less than 39 feet in length, 8 feet in width and 12 feet in height. Entries larger than this require written approval by the Nova Scotia Department of Transportation. (Hint ... don’t do it)

All operators of ATV’s must wear helmets and remain in the parade line up. Freewheeling outside the assigned position in the parade column is illegal.

All drivers must remain with vehicle entries from the time of arrival at the marshalling site until completion of the judging at Fort Anne. All drivers must comply with the directions given to them by the Parade Marshal (identifiable by orange safety vests) or by the Annapolis Royal Police Department. At Fort Anne, Parks Canada Staff members will marshal entries for the awarding of prizes.

The Parade Marshal, and Chief of Police have the authority to deny entry or remove any participant from the parade if they judge the entry to present a safety hazard to themselves or the general public. Persons riding or driving horses should have sufficient experience and maturity to be able to handle their charges in the confusion and excitement of a parade.

It is the responsibility and liability of the applicant to ensure the safety of other entrants and other users. Please enjoy yourself. Please be safety conscious.
