Did you know???

The creation of Canada Day started July 1, 1867, so this is the 147th Anniversary of Canada Day.

Once Again the Town of Annapolis Royal is in the News

Here is a link to a story about the Poppy Planting Campaign: <http://rustikmagazine.com/planting-poppies-first-world-war/#.U6qoul1dXyw>.

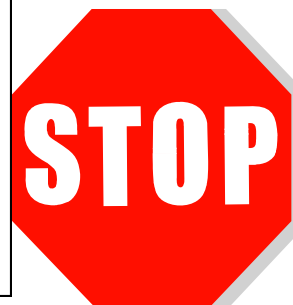

Rustik Magazine, Atlantic Canada's online hub for sustainable living and healthy eating, features inspirational stories, practical advice, and simple techniques for gardening, cooking, raising small animals, going green, and pursuing an active, healthy lifestyle.

NO FALL CLEAN-UP

It is with regret the Town announces that the Valley Waste Resource Management Authority made some very difficult financial decisions for the 2014/15 fiscal year, including but not limited to the elimination of the Fall Special Clean-up Service.

STOP SIGN AT THE INTERSECTION OF ST. ANTHONY AND ST. GEORGE STREET

After a review by the Provincial Traffic Authority, the stop sign was not a recommended solution. A 36" exterior convex mirror mounted higher at the intersection of St. George and St. Anthony Streets was agreed to.

Derelict Vehicle Removal Program

Derelict Vehicles Removed at No Cost! This FREE service is available to residents of Annapolis County including the Town of Annapolis Royal. The program runs from June 1st through November 30th, 2014. Pick-up is at the discretion of the Hauler.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Vehicles must be accessible (Hauler's discretion)
- The Hauler has FREE salvage of the vehicles(s),
- Your FREE pickup is scheduled by the Hauler.

This program is co-sponsored by the Municipality of the County of Annapolis and Valley Waste Resource Management.

HAULER INFORMATION:

Brown's Auto Salvage Ltd.

For more information please contact Cheryl A. Mason, Administrator for Dangerous and Unsightly Premises 902-584-2255.

PLANNING RENOVATIONS OR REPAIRS?

You may require a permit and the deadline for the Town to receive applications is July 4th, 2014 for the July meeting. There will be no Planning & Heritage Committee meeting in August, meetings will resume in September. For more information contact Sandi Millett-Campbell at 532-3145.

Dear Sandwich Board Sign Owners,

Please ensure that your sandwich board sign does not impede pedestrian traffic, also all expired sandwich board leases must be renewed no later than July 15th, 2014 or the property owner will be asked to remove the sign. Thank you for your cooperation, the Town of Annapolis Royal.

Annapolis Community Bandfest 2014

A gathering of Community Concert Band Musicians on July 18-20th, 2014 at the Annapolis Royal Regional Academy in Annapolis Royal. This is a non-competitive festival where community musicians from all over the maritime provinces gather for a weekend of exquisite music making. It is also a chance for band musicians to play with others who share a passion for making music. All rehearsals are open to the public to see how many different pieces of music come together for the final performance.

Our conductors this year are:

Rowan Fitzgerald - retired instrumental music teacher and saxophonist extraordinaire from Charlottetown, PEI

Maggie Helms - teaches instrumental music at Northeast Kings Education Centre in Canning, NS

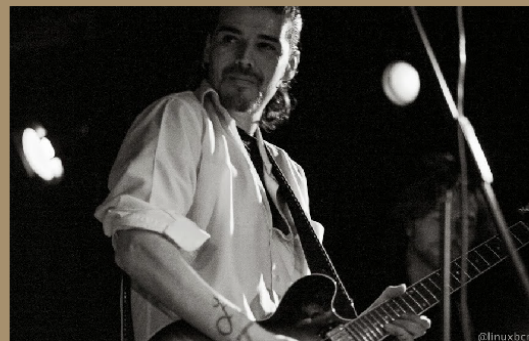

Ken Foote - teaches instrumental music in Bridgewater, NS and is a trombonist, clinical conductor and adjudicator in the Maritime Provinces.

The Grand Finale Free Public Concert will be held on Sunday, July 20th, 2014 at 2:00 PM on the front lawn of the Annapolis Royal Regional Academy. In the event of bad weather, the concert will be held in the school auditorium.

EVERYONE WELCOME

Annapolis Royal is THE PLACE TO BE on July 4-6

With two marquee events organized by the Historic Gardens in the height of the rose season, and lots of great activity in and around the Town, things will definitely be hopping on the weekend of July 4-6.

Start your weekend experience in Annapolis Royal with "Wine & Roses", Friday, July 4, 5-7pm, a unique opportunity to explore the Historic Gardens with a glass of wine in hand! Wine, hor d'ouvres and some great jazz music: add lots of friends and more friends-to-be and you will have a magical evening. It's rain-or-shine event - if the weather is poor we will re-muster at the Cafe & Gardens Interpretive Centre.

Then join us Saturday, July 5 as the community showcases some of its unique gardens and houses in the 9th annual Annapolis Royal House & Garden Tour. The event will include a visit to seven private properties in Annapolis Royal and nearby Upper Clements where residents have made use of unique designs and materials to create wonderful gardens and landscapes. In addition, all of the featured properties are inviting guests to tour parts of their unique homes. The Annapolis Royal Historic Gardens will be a centerpiece of the tour, in prime rose season, with the Horticulturist on hand to provide a guided tour. Have a look at our 2014 Feature Properties on www.ExploreOurGardens.com. Tickets may be purchased at the Historic Gardens, via our Online Store at www.historicgardens.com or by calling (902) 532-7018.

And to make the weekend complete... Add First Friday celebrations in the downtown, a visit to the Farmers' Market on Saturday morning, stroll through the waterfront shopping district, hike along the French Basin Trail, and experience our attractions and museums. Take in a musical performance at King's Theatre on Saturday evening as a nightcap and then relax on Sunday with some Greenhouse-hopping in our wonderful Valley nurseries.

Why go anywhere else?

If you are a budding young filmmaker we want to hear from you!
The ARTs Unleashed! Festival in Annapolis Royal is going digital and we want your short film.
DEADLINE DATE: July 25th. 2014

GIVE US YOUR BEST SHOTS IN 3.5!

The VIDEO 3.5 FilmFest is open to Nova Scotia students in grades 7 through 12 who study in the Tri County Regional and Annapolis Valley Regional School Districts. All students attending public, private or home schools are eligible.

WE WANT YOUR FOCUS!

If you are interested in participating in the VIDEO 3.5 FilmFest 2014 there are no wrong answers, only opportunities. If you can tell your story in three and a half minutes and you want the chance to show it to an audience then download entry forms and find more detailed information and regular FilmFest updates at the VIDEO 3.5 website – please visit -www.videothreepointfive.com

A third-party panel of jurors which includes professional filmmakers will judge the videos. Winning entries will be announced and showcased at the VIDEO 3.5 Award Screenings on Sunday, August 17, at King's Theatre, Annapolis Royal during the ARTs Unleashed Annapolis Royal festivities Aug 16 through 24. Prizes will be awarded in each category. An Audience Choice Award-winner will also be chosen based on audience votes at the VIDEO 3.5 Award Screenings.

ARTs Unleashed!

ARTs Unleashed! – a 9-day celebration of arts, culture and heritage in Annapolis Royal – will kick off with Paint the Town on August 16 and run through August 24. One new component is a 4-day modern dance festival at King's Theatre, featuring a combination of professional dance companies and community dance projects. All organizations, businesses and individuals are invited to participate. Plan an event and we'll get you on the list.

Check our website at <http://artsunleashed.wordpress.com> for up-to-date information. All businesses are invited to co-advertise with us in full-page ads in the Chronicle-Herald in June, July and August at reduced rates. The deadline for listing events on the website and the printed events guide is July 18. For more information, contact ARTs Unleashed Event Coordinator Andrea Vandenboer at (902) 532-7069 or arcac@ns.aliantzinc.ca

CALL TO ARTISTS

Wanted: Art for display and sale: During the months of July and August, ARTs Unleashed!* will operate a storefront gallery/information centre in the old Internet Cafe space at 324 St. George Street in Annapolis Royal. We are excited to announce the ARTsUnleashed! Annapolis Royal Pop-Up Information Centre and Gallery will operate July 5 through August 24. The venue will be open seven days a week where you'll be welcome to browse and purchase original art and crafts. We are looking for original art and craft – any media – to display and sell during that period. If you are interested in having your work included, please contact Grace Butland at grace.butland@bellaliant.net. ARTs Unleashed! is sponsored by ARCAC with funding from the NS Department of Communities, Culture & Heritage and the Town of Annapolis Royal.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Angela Amero, and the Natal Day Committee, are looking for volunteers to help out with the planning, or events for this year's weekend. If you can volunteer an hour, a day, deliver posters, help with an event, any and all help is appreciated.

Please contact Angela at annapolisnatalday@hotmail.com. The Theme for this year's festivities is "History in the Making". The weekend starts on Friday August 1st filled with fun for the family until Monday August 4th.

NEW NATAL DAY COMMITTEE FORMING

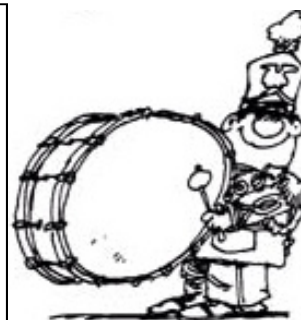

Are you interested in helping the Town of Annapolis Royal's Natal Day weekend of celebrations grow and continue for another 68 years? We need your help to get this event organized to apply for federal festival funding. We're looking for both citizen and business representatives. If interested, submit your contact information to Addie MacDonald at Adele@blissfulinternet.com by July 11, 2014.

Local Artist Show & Sale has been cancelled this year. This is the Show & Sale that was usually held August 1-10th at the Masonic Lodge.

COME BE A PART OF THE

ANNAPOLIS & DISTRICT NATAL DAY PARADE – "HISTORY IN THE MAKING"

What a great theme – back in history – forward to the history of the future. History of the town, history of your company; so many ideas for you to toss around! We look forward to everyone's participation in the parade. The registration form can be found on the town website <http://annapolisroyal.com/>. Any ideas or questions you have can be directed to nataldayparade@gmail.com and Anne Read will get back to you asap! All are welcome and encouraged to join this fun event. Let's make history with this year's parade!
