UPDATE FROM THE MARKETING & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Marketing & Economic Development Committee (MEDC) would like to take this opportunity to report our efforts to date. We had a tremendous success this spring with the Brainstorming Session with the community. From the data collected we were able to structure the committee and set out short term priorities. We have established an ARRA subcommittee under the leadership of Councillor Byron Mersereau to explore future uses of the ARRA building. Under the leadership of Jim McGinnis, the talents of Chris Cooper of Edificemedia, were demonstrated with the video trailer "Meet You in Annapolis Royal". We can expect the release of four additional components in Spring 2014.

The Community Mapping project is on going with Jim McGinnis, Alan Melanson and Councillor Paul Paquette. Adele McDonald has done extraordinary work on an audit of the Town's website. Further work on the mechanics of the website is ongoing with Adele and Troy Woodland, our webmaster.

The MEDC committee has refined budget items dealing with marketing and is creating a protocol for budgetary presentations by the various organizations in Town. Grace Butland adopted an inclusive-marketing approach with other organizations in Town that encouraged joining together for an "Arts Festival". We look forward to next year's festival. Peter Davies and his sub-committee conceptualized and adopted a "Stay Another Day Campaign" which included production and sale of carrier bags and aprons with the slogan imprinted on them. We now have an Events Notification process so that Town Hall is aware of events that are happening in Town, thereby keeping our merchants and accommodations people in the loop. We had a successful Tourist Survey this past summer and will repeat the process next year to refine what the tourist is looking for when visiting Annapolis Royal.

We are also in initial discussions with Acadia University for research purposes.

We had a successful luncheon meeting with representatives with the B& B, campgrounds, attractions, museums and Board of Trade, our points of first contacts with visitors, to discuss this past tourist season and looking forward to next year's. The MEDC committee is pleased to see the reception we have received from merchants and residents during the first part of this year and we look forward to projects for the next tourist season. We are currently receiving possible slogans for the Town. We will be looking for your input once they are shortlisted. The Marketing and Economic Development Committee would like to extend its thanks to Peter Davies and Paul Stackhouse for their participation on the committee and wish them well in their future ventures. The Committee would also like to extend a warm welcome to two new members; Adele McDonald and Bill Monk and to Sandi Millett-Campbell who has accepted a new position at Town Hall which includes the Marketing portfolio. The work that the Committee has accomplished to date has been greatly assisted by the commitment and support of our staff at Town Hall, particularly, CAO Carol St-Amour and Administrative Assistant Dawn Bourke. Thank you.

Current Members of MEDC: Mayor Michael Tompkins, Councillor Byron Mersereau, Councillor Paul Paquette, Jim McGinnis, Paul Sanford, Adele MacDonald, Bill Monk.

On behalf of the Committee, Chair – Councillor Paul Paquette

In search of Striped Bass on the Annapolis River

The striped bass (M.saxatilis), or striper, is a fish highly prized by anglers in Nova Scotia, but the fate of this species in the Bay of Fundy has come into question.

Striped bass are listed as endangered by the Committee on the Status of Endangered Wildlife in Canada (COWEWIC), and The Department of Fisheries and Oceans has indicated that there is no evidence of spawning or recruitment in the Annapolis River since the mid-seventies. With this alarming information in mind, the Clean Annapolis River Project has been working with the Striped Bass Research Collective on a research and outreach project. It has been a busy field season with samples taken from 12 seine sites on the Annapolis River and 3 on the Bear River, as well as fyke net sites on Allains Creek and the Annapolis River. To date sampling has not yielded any striped bass, and collection will continue while conditions still permit.

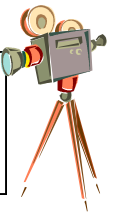

Information from anglers and local residents is another key component to this project. The CARP office doubles as a Striped Bass Stewardship centre, and is always open to visitors. We have log books available for anglers who are willing to record information and collect scale samples of striped bass. If you have any information about striped bass in the Annapolis River your contribution is very important, please stop by our office or contact us by phone or e-mail.

To learn more about this or other CARP initiatives please visit our website: www.annapolisriver.ca, call us at (902)-532-7533, e-mail us at katiemclean@annapolisriver.ca, or stop by the office at 314 St George St., Annapolis Royal.

WHAT IS A PANTOMIME?

A Pantomime is not a mime. A Pantomime is not serious and silent. A pantomime is not a thought provoking, intellectual exercise in theatre arts. What is a Pantomime?

It is a light-hearted, fun and altogether funny stage performance. The Annapolis District Drama Group is putting on a Pantomime in November and we hope everyone will come. The performance is at King's Theatre on November 15, 16 and 17. Our Pantomime is Cinderella. A Pantomime is usually based on a well known fairy tale. Cinderella meets the Handsome Prince. They fall in love but the path of true love is full of bumps and turns. There are the enthusiastic villagers who fancy the Prince and who meet at the Christmas Market in Happiness Royal. There is Little Bow Peep and her young friends. There are Buttons and Bows (no way to describe them!). There is a mean Queen and her long suffering Consort. There is a family of a wimpy husband, a bossy wife and two of the most awful "girls" you could ever imagine. Did I mention that the "girls" are played by men! Throw in a mysterious storyteller and a not so magic Fairy Godmother and you can imagine the chaos.

Join us for this completely child and adult friendly show with song and dance and humour mixed with a good dose of romance. It will do you good.

November is Diabetes Month

In addition, heritage approval may be required. Whether you are renovating an existing building, constructing a new house or just putting up a baby barn, you need to obtain a permit before starting the job. Permits are required for small-scale projects such as signs, decks, porches, swimming pool fences and garden sheds, as well as for repairs, alterations, additions, or demolition of existing buildings. A development permit is also needed for a "change of use" such as a new business.

Welcome again to Valley Waste, Annapolis Royal!

It's been a month since the Town of Annapolis Royal joined Valley Waste as its 9th municipal partner and we've received a wonderfully warm welcome. It's clear from collection day that residents and businesses have been doing a fantastic job at recycling and composting. The biggest adjustment has most likely been managing a green cart in the yard and remembering that collection day is now Wednesday.

- A few friendly reminders on collection days:
- Have items out by 8:00 am on collection day
 - Garbage goes in clear bags (4 bag limit). If needed, one of these may be a solid colour bag to allow for privacy. This bag, like the others, cannot contain recycling or food waste
 - Papers and containers must be in separate blue bags – papers in one bag, containers in another
 - If cardboard can't fit inside your recycling bag, flatten and bundle to a size no larger than 3ft x 2ft x 1ft. Up to two bundles permitted per collection
 - To keep the green carts clean and to prevent freezing in winter, wrap food scraps in paper, boxboard (i.e. cereal boxes) or certified compostable bags
