WHAT'S UP ANNAPOLIS?

Many thanks to the efforts of the Natal Day Committee and all of the volunteers and individuals who worked tirelessly to put together another wonderful Natal Day weekend. The weekend would not be possible without your hard work and dedication. On behalf of Town Council, THANK YOU!

Annapolis Royal is honouring the significant roles that African Nova Scotians have played in its history. As part of this initiative, the Town Hall plaza will be re-named in tribute to the remarkable Daurene E. Lewis, elected as Mayor of Annapolis Royal in 1984 - becoming the first black female mayor in Canada.

A dedication ceremony and unveiling of a bust of Lewis, by artist Ruth Abernethy, will be held in front of the Annapolis Royal Town Hall on Sunday, September 9 at 2 pm, followed by a short reception. The date was chosen to coincide with the 75th anniversary of Lewis' birth.

An Order of Canada recipient, Daurene Lewis was also Director of the Centre for Women in Business at Mount Saint Vincent University; principal of the Institute of Technology and Akerley Campuses of the Nova Scotia Community College; served on the Board of Directors of Canada Post; the Governor General's Order of Canada Advisory Council; the executive of the Vanier Institute of the Family; the Maritime Conservatory of Performing Arts; and was a member of the International Women's Foundation. Lewis was a recipient of the United Nations Global Citizenship Award; the Progress Club of Halifax Woman of Excellence Award for Public Affairs and Communication; and Nova Scotia Black Cultural Centre's Wall of Honour.

All are invited to honour this extraordinary woman.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

What an incredible summer it has been in the Town of Annapolis Royal—with more great events and activities scheduled for September. Annapolis Royal is hosting the 2018 Provincial Heritage Conference, CHANGING TIDE: Heritage Stewardship and Sustainability - September 26th-28th. (nsheritage.ca).

Natal Day celebrations in August proved exciting as ever, with another great street dance courtesy of the always popular Focus Dance Band. Natal Day Parade participants and the community truly embraced this year's theme of 'Diversity Is Our Strength'. Amidst the annual traditions of our Natal Day weekend, was the replacing of the title of Queen Annapolis Royal with Annapolis Royal Leadership Ambassador - to keep step with last year's changes to the Apple Blossom Festival's annual leadership program. Congratulations to our newly crowned 2018 Annapolis Royal Leadership Ambassador Zeynep Tonak.

2018 Annapolis Royal Leadership Ambassador Zeynep Tonak. And Mayor Bill MacDonald.

Food Bank Notice

The Annapolis Royal and Area Food Bank is in need of egg cartons for both one dozen eggs or flats of eggs. Cartons that hold one and a half dozen eggs are also acceptable. They must be clean and in good condition. Plastic grocery bags that are clean and without holes would also be welcomed. These items can be left at the donation box at Town Hall.

The Food Bank is still located on the bottom floor of the Academy. Opening hours are the second and third Wednesday of the month from 6pm-8pm, from September until June. Summer hours are determined yearly.

Thank you for your generosity.

Do you love to sing?

CHIEF'S CORNER

Chief T.G. (Tim) Moser

The busy months of summer are now behind us and what a busy summer it was. We had no fewer than four parades go through our town with considerable amounts of planning and involvement for a Freedom of the Town parade - marking the 100th anniversary of the Cadets; the Special Olympics hosted by Nova Scotia; our first Pride parade; and of course Natal Day celebrations.

As we move back into our more routine lifestyle I wanted to remind you to be cognizant of our children as they return back to school. Not only does this include school zones but also areas where they are picked up and dropped off.

September marks the annual Police and Peace Officers Memorial parade and service in Ottawa. This year will remind us of the unfortunate and significant tragedy where two Fredericton police officers were killed in the line of duty while responding to the shooting of two Fredericton citizens. This event hit close to home and only reminds us that freedom and security can come at a high cost. Not only are these incidents an attack on the victims, they are an attack on our communities as a whole.

Municipal Effectiveness

Exciting news—after much hard work, the Municipal Effectiveness Advisory Committee is wrapping up their review of the Municipal Planning Strategy (MPS) and Land Use By-law (LUB). Once complete, the suggested changes will be presented to the public for input. This is tentatively scheduled for October 2018. Stay tuned for dates.

Façade Program

A reminder to all the façade recipients to please hand in your receipts once the project is complete. If you are a recipient and do not think that there will be time to complete the project this year, please contact Sandi at phmc@annapolisroyal.com or 902-532-2043 as there is a waiting list for the program.

Bill Reminders

Please be advised that sending funds electronically to pay bills is not instantaneous. It generally takes 24-48 hours for the paperwork to be transmitted to the Town therefore if bills are paid on the last day they are due, they may not be received by the Town until after the due date.

Please note that due to new Canada Post Regulations, mail will not be delivered unless the correct mailing address is used. Water bills will be sent out the end of September. If you are concerned that Town does not have an up-to-date mailing address, please contact us at 902-532-3148.

Change to Bulletin Board

Town Hall now has a new bulletin board for advertising town events. In order to allow for current events to be showcased, we ask that anyone wanting to put up a poster, please see the front desk. Posters will now only be displayed for two weeks. Thank you.
