MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Don't imagine for a moment that things slow down in Annapolis Royal in winter. We embrace all the seasons with style and activities for the whole family.

Popular annual traditions kick off the holiday season, including the Annapolis Board of Trade's Parade of Lights with tree lightings at our historic Courthouse and Town Hall; Christmas carols; and the arrival of Santa Claus. Santa then leads a walking procession along St. George Street, aglow with 'Light Up the Town' store fronts and street lamps, down to 'Christmas Square' where there will be visits with Santa Claus and free cookies and hot chocolate. This is capped off by the Annapolis Heritage Society's Victorian Christmas at the O'Dell House Museum.

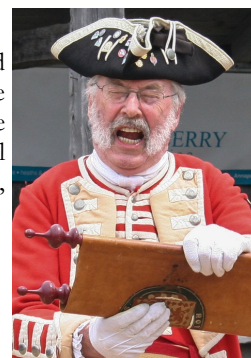

The next day, a free town shuttle provides relaxed holiday shopping, transporting riders from shops to Christmas craft fairs throughout the town, while kids enjoy a free Christmas movie at Kings Theatre, sponsored by the local Lions Club.

Sissiboo Coffee Roaster's Cafe Annapolis Royal once again hosts Christmas Tunes with the Mayor on December 21st at 11am.

COMMUNITY

Book a Cry

The Town Crier and his Consort are available to attend and proclaim at store openings, weddings, anniversaries, and private functions. You determine where, when, and the message to be delivered. In lieu of payments, a donation to the Annapolis Royal and Area Food Bank is encouraged. To inquire, contact Town Crier, Peter Davies at pvdavies@ns.sympatico.ca.

Lions News

The Annapolis Royal Lions Club would like to sincerely thank the many local businesses that graciously donated again this year to their annual fundraiser! Without the generous support from a small community such as ours we would not be able to increase awareness of our club and continue with the Lions motto of "WE SERVE". Congratulations to this year's three lucky winners: Sherry Deming, Mary Anne Robinson and John Elliott!

The annual Christmas tree sales fundraiser begins November 30th at Home Hardware. Trees will be $25. Sales are seven days a week while supplies last. This fundraiser raises money for our club's local charity.

Don't forget the Annapolis Royal Lions Club's sponsored children's Christmas movie on Saturday, December 1st at 10:30am at King's Theatre. This is a free event with Santa in attendance.

For more information, contact Peter Sleight at 902-532-2846 or email petersleightcastlink.ca.

Chanukah, the Festival of Lights, is celebrated this year from December 2-10th. The Hebrew meaning of Chanukah is "dedication".

Message from the Environment Advisory Committee

Did you know that the commonly used propylene rope is one of the largest contributors to ocean pollution consumed by sea life? Studies have shown that microplastics are present in the environment and that they can reside there for an extended time with proven short and long-term effects in laboratory organisms. Making the switch to using hemp ropes has a tangible positive impact on the environment. Hemp rope is durable and strong, does not leave microplastics that pollute and harm wildlife, and was one of the first ropes ever used by ancient civilizations. Hemp ropes are even strong enough to use for boating and will disintegrate. This very small, simple step is environmentally sound proactive initiative we can all take to make our environment a little cleaner and healthier.

Hire an International Business Student

If your business is experiencing growth, and/or overloaded with backburner projects that aren't getting done, NSCC has job-ready students from our International Business program who will be working full-time for companies that need assistance. This program happens in the final semester for these students so they can be hired at the end of the internship if they prove to be a good fit. If you think you might have an interest in an intern for the January-April 2019 timeframe, please contact Leroy Lowe at Leroy.lowe@nsc.ca, 902-893-53262 or Mark Kilby at mark.kilby@nsc.ca or 902-893-5352, International Business Faculty.

Are you looking to volunteer or are an organization seeking volunteers? Volunteer Nova Scotia recently launched their volunteer matching website that connects volunteers and organizations across Nova Scotia. It is an easy to use, free, searchable database that allows volunteers to find the right opportunities in their communities and not-for-profit organizations, clubs or agencies to find the right volunteers. Check it out at volunteerns.ca.

CHIEF'S CORNER

Chief T.G. (Tim) Moser

As we move into the holiday season I want to remind you to take your time and be vigilant so you can arrive safely at your destination and truly enjoy this time of year with friends and loved ones. Here are a few tips when you are out shopping this holiday season:

- be aware of your surroundings and who may be watching for an opportunity to pilfer those very items from your home or vehicle;
- don't leave items in your vehicle however if you do, do not leave items in plain view and secure your vehicle;
- if doing multiple trips into the stores, consider going for a short drive after putting items in your vehicle, then park in a different spot before going back inside;
- be careful of what you post on social media such as when you are going to be away from your residence, photos of contents within your home, or any information that may show your address. Adjust your privacy settings so what you are posting is seen only by those you choose to share with.

On November 30, 2018, the Nova Scotia Department of Justice, in partnership with law enforcement, launched Operation Christmas 2018, the annual impaired driving campaign. This year the focus was not only on alcohol impairment but also cannabis and combined impairment. MADD Canada statistics reveal that in 2014 there were 2,297 traffic fatalities in Canada and 1,273 of those were related to impaired driving. There were 62 traffic related deaths reported in Nova Scotia in the same year and of those 24 were related to impaired driving. Interesting but sadly enough, the break down was: alcohol related - two deaths; drug related - eight deaths, and combined alcohol and drug related - 14 deaths. Second to Newfoundland we had the highest percent of combined alcohol/drug impaired driving fatalities in Canada. Please if you wish to partake, make sure you plan ahead so you are not putting yourself or others in a position to make the bad decision to drive home impaired.

Please arrive safely!

Lastly, related to parking within the Town of Annapolis Royal, please respect our parking signs, do not park within 5 metres of a fire hydrant or crosswalk, 7.5 metres from an intersection, or 10 metres of a stop sign. Parking restrictions are not done to purposely make things inconvenient for you but are designed for safety and to assist with safe traffic movement. The Traffic Flow Committee is committed to finding better parking solutions and is always open to public suggestions.

Please have a safe and wonderful holiday season and to those who celebrate – have a very Merry Christmas!
