WHAT'S UP ANNAPOLIS?

The spring weather doesn't seem to want to make up its mind: one week we're in shorts and sunglasses, and the next it is snowing again !

Perhaps the most important day in the calendar comes up on May 10th: Mother's Day ! Please remember to honour your mother on this special day, and shower her with treats, a nice meal or even just a card. Show you cherish who she is.

As spring is kind-of here, all you gardeners will want to come downtown on May 17 for the annual Rare & Unusual Plant Sale in the market square. This brings together many local vendors offering a huge array of uncommon garden plants for sale, so if you have an empty spot in your backyard come and take a look !

The wharf is now open after the winter closure. Remember not to cross the rope barriers and take care with small children.

Town Hall will be closed on Monday, May 18, 2026 for Victoria Day.

The Town would like to thank Parks Canada for opening up the Habitation for them, to Paul Lalonde for the Habitation tour, to the Town Crier for her fabulous and educational proclamation, to Richard Laurin for the tour of his property and the visit to the BelleIsle Acadian Centre, to the volunteer drivers including our CAO and Holly Sanford who covered a missed driving shift for the crew, to Past Hiscock and her crew for the fabulous food and service at the Sunday evening reception on Aril 26, as well as the many members of the community who turned out to welcome the vessel and/or to welcome them as they walked around our town.

Vulnerable Person Registry

The Vulnerable Persons Registry (VPR) is a community-based policing initiative in partnership with the local Police Services and local community agencies. The registry promotes communication between vulnerable persons, the people who support them and the police. This information will assist officers when responding to an emergency involving a vulnerable individual. The registry provides quick access to critical information about a registered person, such as who to call in an emergency, a detailed physical description, and any particular sensitivities that the person may experience. Registration is completely voluntary. The database is to help alleviate safety concerns for those that are vulnerable in our community.

Chief Mark Kane

Who is a vulnerable person?

A vulnerable person is defined as a person who, due to medical, cognitive, mental health or physical condition, may exhibit patterns of behaviour that may pose a danger to that person. Examples of Vulnerable Persons may include persons with autism, dementia, acquired brain injury, or cerebral palsy that may cause a person to exhibit atypical behaviours (e.g. wandering, physical instability, inability to communicate, aggression, irrational fear, oversensitivity to sensory stimulus (sounds, lights, touch).

What is the goal of the registry?

The goal of the VPR is to provide police with quick access to critical information about a registered person so the officer can assist in an emergency situation. When a Vulnerable Person is thought to be at risk, his or her personal information will be shared with relevant organizations, enabling them to respond quickly and provide effective assistance to the registrant.

Who can use the registry?

The VPR is currently open to anyone, free of charge, living in Annapolis Royal who feels they are vulnerable in times of emergencies and would like extra assurance. In addition to individuals registering themselves, the parent/legal guardian, or other legal authority of a vulnerable person may voluntarily register an individual who is unable to do so or give consent. Victim Services is a 24/7 365 days a year service; the registry will be accessed when needed by designated police staff.

Registration Process

You will be asked for your Consent to Collect, Use and Disclose Personal Information. You will be asked to confirm that you understand this is voluntary, and that you are 18 years of age or older and have the authority to provide this personal information on behalf of the Registrant.

A vulnerable person who is under the age of 16 years must be registered by the parent/guardian. Once your child/dependent adult turns 16, they will need to give their consent to stay on the registry (if they are able to give consent).

You will be asked about your relationship with the vulnerable person:

- Self
 - Parent/Legal Guardian of a child under 16 years old
- Other legal authority (e.g., Power of Attorney for personal care, court order, etc.)

If you check OTHER then you must confirm that you have permission to register a vulnerable person.:

- I have their permission and consent and they have the capacity to give it
- I have a valid and unrevoked authorization or Power of Attorney for Personal Care that was made when the Vulnerable Person had a legal capacity which gives me that authority AND the Vulnerable Person has been deemed lacking capacity by a Court or licensed physician

I have a court's authorization/appointment or other legal authority pursuant to legislation in Nova Scotia.

Note: If you are the parent/guardian of the person being registered, you will be required to provide your contact information, including your email address for the purposes of keeping the registry updated every year.

Starting April 1st, 2026 - Change to Bulky Waste Collection

Valley Waste has made an important change to the way bulky waste is collected in the Annapolis Valley. Previously, residents had designated Spring and Fall Clean-Up weeks where multiple large items could be placed at the curb for collection. This program has now been replaced with a year-round bulky waste collection system.

What's Changing

- Residents may now place up to two bulky waste items per household unit at the curb. (These are usually items that cannot fit in a regular garbage bag).
- These items can be set out with their regular scheduled garbage collection.

This replaces the former Spring and Fall Clean-Up events.

Private Roads

If residents live on a private road and get collection from the smaller cottage truck, they will need to contact their road association or call us for more information on their clean-up collection and dates.

Examples of Bulky Waste Items

Common items include furniture such as couches, chairs, mattresses, box springs, and similar large household items.

Important Reminders

- The limit is two bulky items per unit at one time.
- Items must be placed curbside on regular collection day.
- Regular garbage bag limits and sorting rules still apply.

Please visit Valley Waste website to see what is accepted.

Why the Change

Moving to a year-round bulky waste system allows residents to dispose of large items when they need to, rather than waiting for seasonal clean-up weeks. It also helps reduce illegal dumping, reduces costs, and improves
